JUNE SCRIPTURE VERSE
Psalm 86:5

"For you, O Lord,
are good and forgiving,
abounding in steadfast love to all who call upon you."

The Voice of the Father (Psalm 81)

When in the time of bondage, when under yoke I fell, A voice came to me like thunder saying, "Follow and all shall be well."

That voice I followed and it led me out through sea
and wilderness,
The voice of my Father was leading me into a land most blessed.

But then I grew distracted by enemies and dangers around,
The men were all like giants, no hiding could be found.
The voice of my Father, through His servants, came calling me to go on,
Yet in fear and trembling I gave way and doubted the path He'd shown.

Again He called "If you would just hear and follow without doubt,
I'd fight the battle for you and force the giants out."
But great was the disbelief and greater still the dread, I chose to reject the voice of God and chose the path of the dead.

For the Father is always leading in paths of life for us to go,
Even when we cannot see the end we still can surely know,
That He sees the first as well as the last, with Him
there is no time,
And He always has only good in store for me in His grand design.

I hear the voice of the Father, will I go or will I stay?
Harden not your hearts as your fathers did on their testing day,
But follow Him with all your heart and know it is the best For following the voice of the Father will always lead to rest.

Psalm 28:7 says, "The LORD is my strength and my shield; my heart trusts in him, and he helps me. My heart leaps for joy, and with my song I praise Him." My heart was full of joy as we came back together for corporate worship in May. The renovations are absolutely beautiful, and I hope are a reflection of how beautiful our God is. Worship is a gift from God to His people. "The gathering of God-seeing, God-savoring, God-showing human beings in one place to join their hearts and minds and voices in making much of this God is a miracle! The ripple effect of this hour—this authentic, miracle hour of meeting God in worship— is unfathomable in its depth and extent. Because of this encounter with God, a thousand problems that had not yet come into being are solved in people's lives. A thousand decisions are shaped for good without any conscious forethought. A thousand relational corruptions are averted. And hundreds of hearts are softened in the presence of God so that impossible obedience suddenly seems possible— like saying, "I'm sorry; I was wrong." And yet we do not gather for this. We gather to see and savor God." (John Piper)

Church family, let's pray together that God has caused us to grow stronger in Him. Let's pray for God's presence to be known and felt when we gather together. May this be a great summer of worship together.

Honored to serve as your pastor,
Pastor Bob
