On the last night Jesus had with his disciples before His death, John the Apostle recorded a story from the upper room of Jesus taking water and washing His disciples' feet. As he came to Peter, the bold and brash apostle rebuffed our Lord for wanting to wash His feet, but Jesus gently rebuked Peter for his lack of receiving the cleansing. This same pride finds its way into my heart at times and makes it difficult for me to receive gifts from the Lord and His people: this pride of "do it myself, I don't need anyone else" is a plague to many.

However, this is not the heart of the child of God; the child has a heart to receive, a heart of gratefulness, and a heart of wonder at the gift. In this spirit of receiving, we have celebrated Christmas and prepare for the spring when we will celebrate the passion and sacrifice of our Lord Jesus. In this spirit of receiving and gratefulness, I thank our Father for the greatest gift, the gift of eternal life through the Son, Jesus Christ. In this spirit of receiving, I also want to thank each of you who gave Christmas gifts to me, Nicole, and our children. You, church family, are so good to us. We love each of you and pray for God's rich blessing of grace and peace to be upon you in the new year.

Pastor Rusty

Another Year Is Dawning

Another year is dawning, Dear Master, let it be, In working, or in waiting, Another year with Thee. Another year of mercies, Of faithfulness and grace; Another year of gladness In the shining of Thy face. Another year of progress, Another year of praise, Another year of proving Thy presence all the days. Another year of service, Of witness of Thy love, Another year of training For holier work above. Another year is dawning, Dear Master, let it be On earth, or else in heaven Another year for Thee.
