MISSION CONFERENCE 2026-WHAT A WEEK!

What a wonderful Mission Conference we had this past week! We kicked things off Sunday evening with dinner & a Q&A session with local missionaries Ian & Kara Conrey from Covenant Community in Ellijay. They encouraged & challenged us as they shared about their anti-human trafficking ministry & how we can help-even from afar.

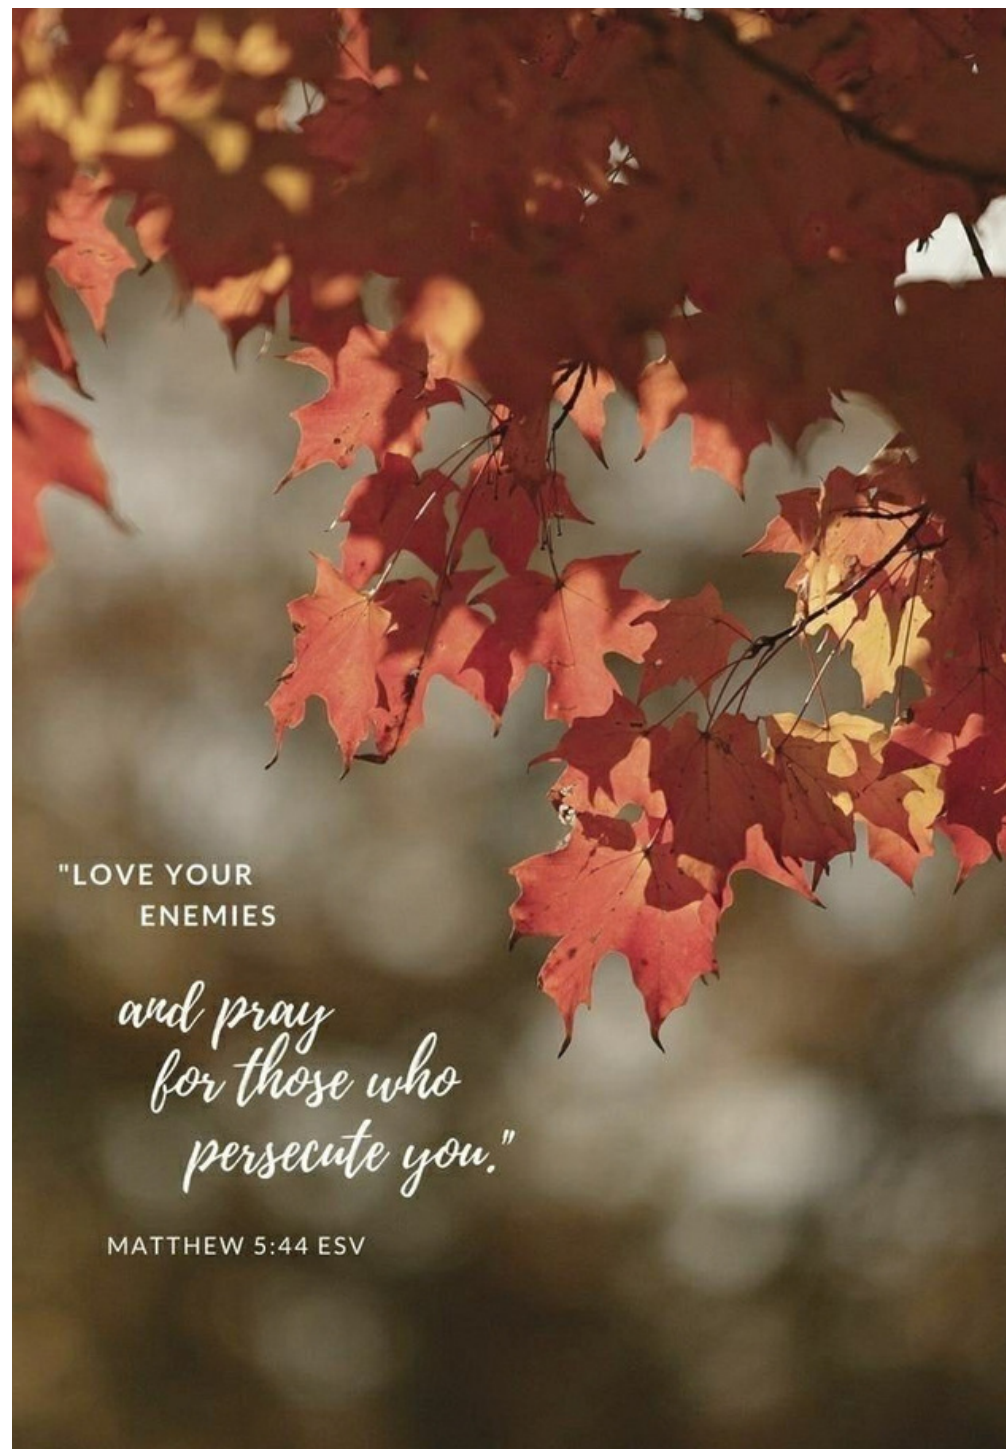

Throughout the week, we heard from several of our local ministries & missionaries. Stacy Dyer, our Associational Missionary, shared with Monday in a bittersweet evening as he prepares to begin a new ministry as Family Pastor in Cleveland, GA. Andrew Jones gave us an encouraging update on the Skate Park Ministry, and Lori Kanter shared about the work of HER HOPE Pregnancy Center and their need of volunteers.

We also connected with missionaries we support via live video: Thomas Shamblin in Costa Rica, Ethan & Renee Rigdon in Brazil & Vann & Vanessa Brock in Peru. It was a joy to hear how God is working through each of their ministries!

Our keynote speaker, Dr. Javier Chavez; adjunct professor of missiology, brought a powerful challenge on "Discipleship: The Emotional, Comfortable, and Compromised Disciple." Having grown up on the mission field, served as a missionary, and now serving as church planter & pastor, Dr. Chavez gave us much to consider about what it means to truly follow Christ.

Our final evening was especially meaningful as members of our Hispanic group joined us & heard part of the message in Spanish. Two members of our Hispanic group prayed, repented and gave their lives to Jesus, and received salvation! What a beautiful way to close our Mission Conference! Dr. Chavez also plans to bring some of the youth from his church for future outreach to the Hispanic community in our area.

What a blessed Missions Week! We give God all the glory for what He did!
